

Senator Martha McSally VOTES AGAINST PROTECTING OUR PRIVACY

- Detailed Study Suggests National Security Agency Rarely Useful in Stopping Terrorism.
Source: Do NSA's Bulk Surveillance Programs Stop Terrorists? New America Foundation, Jan. 13, 2014

- McSally voted for a bill to extend the National Security Agency's warrantless surveillance program for six more years. Source: S.139, 1/11/18, Roll call 16
- McSally voted for a bill to gut the Federal Communications Commission's internet privacy rules that prevent Internet Service Providers from selling their customer's personal information without their consent. Source: S.J. Res. 34, 3/28/17, Roll call 202
- McSally voted against an amendment to the 2017 Dept. of Defense spending bill to prohibit warrantless searches of government databases for the communications of U.S. persons. Source: H.R. 5293, 6/16/16, Roll call 321
- McSally voted against an amendment to the 2015 Dept. of Defense spending bill to limit the use of funds for warrantless searches of government databases for information pertaining to U.S. citizens. Source: H.R. 2685, 6/11/15, Roll call 356

This November 3, let's cut the cord
on McSally's snooping